Pre-Video Discussion Questions

1. If you remove anything "spiritual," what are your greatest pleasures in life? Have each person in your group communicate at least one.
2. If you had to narrow down what the world finds pleasurable, what would that be?
3. In your opinion, why do pleasures only seem to bring temporary happiness?

Post-Video Discussion Questions

1. When Dr. Miller talks about finding a cure for the curse, what does he mean?
2. How are we guilty of trying to find fulfillment in the pursuit of pleasure, intellect, and work? If you had to choose one of these areas that you most find pleasure in (pleasure, intellect, work), which would it be and why?
3. After sitting through classes on the book of Ecclesiastes, how would you describe its overall purpose?
4. In your opinion, what do you think is the key verse in Ecclesiastes?
