ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

Start your kid's day off by letting them know some areas where they are smart (intelligence, emotions, relationships, etc.).

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "Summer is coming. What's your favorite summer memory?" (Their answer might help you with your summer plans.)

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone answer this question: "What is one question you have for God?"

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, even if we don't know the answer to something, You do. And we can trust that You are bigger than the things we do know, and You are bigger than the things we don't know."
