

Biblical Hope: Running to Win

May 26, 2019

BIBLICAL HOPE:

- Biblical hope is a Person (Jesus): 1 Timothy 1:1
- Biblical hope is rooted in Scripture: Romans 15:4
- Biblical hope impacts our joy, faith, and love: Romans 12:12, Colossians 1:3-5
- Biblical hope motivates us to be Godly: 1 John 3:2-3
- Biblical hope is part of our testimony: 1 Peter 3:14-16
- Biblical hope is an anchor for our lives: Hebrews 6:19-20
- Biblical hope is rooted in faith and empowered by the Holy Spirit: Romans 15:13
- Biblical hope is a choice: Psalm 42:4-5

“Such hope in great blessings when Christ returns not only encourages downcast Christians; it also prompts a reordering of priorities to God’s agenda and inevitably leads to ethical changes in one’s life.”

- Wayne Grudem

“The best Christian living comes from minds that are fixed on heaven.”

David Guzik

“So as we look at these men and women, there should come to our minds this conviction - that the God of yesterday is also the God of today. In other words, the things that God did through Enoch, through Noah, through Abraham, through Jacob, Isaac, Joseph, Moses, Rahab, the things that God did through them, He is able to do today!”

S. Lewis Johnson

"A bag of gold would be as great a handicap to a runner as a bag of lead!"

A.W. Pink

"The Christian runner must rid himself even of innocent things which might retard him. And all that does not help, hinders. It is by running he learns what these things are. So long as he stands he does not feel that they are burdensome and hampering."

"Tidy your space, transform your life."

Marie Kondo

"Faith is demonstrated not defined."

A.W. Tozer
