

Life Group Questions

For the next three months, we will be studying great examples of God's sovereignty over circumstances, His provision for His people, and the power of his enduring covenant with his people. The book of Ruth lays the foundation of the lineage of King David and through him, our Lord Jesus Christ. Ruth is a classic love story that focuses on characters Naomi, Ruth and Boaz. Key themes of the book are repentance, as Naomi returned to the Promised Land; kindness, particularly to those who are in need and know it; redemption, paying a price to redeem what has been or could be lost; and commitment, doing God's will despite the cost.

Below are the verses in Ruth that will be taught during our Sunday services along with the corresponding chapter and questions from the Wiersbe commentary (Be Committed: Doing God's Will Whatever the Cost) to use in your group each week (you can select a few or answer all of them).

MAY 2ND

Be Committed Chapter 1 (pgs. 26-29) - Ruth 1:19-22

1. How did Naomi react to her problems?
2. Do you think Naomi was exaggerating her situation? Did she have any reason to be thankful?
3. What happens to Christians when they concentrate more on themselves and their problems than on God?
4. What experiences have you had in starting over as Ruth and Naomi did?
