

About David Tori

Director of Groups & Next Gen

---

David joined the Trinity staff in 2020 after working as an Assistant Pastor in Portland, Maine. David is working on his Master of Divinity degree at Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary and is pursuing ordination in the Evangelical Presbyterian Church. He was recently married to his wife Karyn and enjoys sports, theology, traveling, and hiking while searching for good coffee and food along the way. David grew up in Pinckney, MI and enjoys living in southeast Michigan near friends and family. He is passionate about the local church and seeing God grow disciples through the Spirit's power in everyday, ordinary circumstances and relationships.

Favorite quote:

"The gospel doesn't impose a way of life on us from without and tell us that we have to live up to it. It creates a new life within and then encourages and directs us to the living out of it." - Eugene Peterson
