

Discussion Questions

1. The first verse of John 14 says "Let not your hearts be troubled"? What is troubling you today and how can you give it over to God?
2. Jesus told the disciples he was going to prepare a place for them and it is also a place for those who believe in him. What does the Bible tell us heaven is going to be like?
3. Jesus says he is the way, truth and life. What does this mean to you and how can we share this with others?
4. The disciples lived with Jesus and yet they still didn't understand who he was and what he was about to do. What are things about Jesus that we still don't understand.
5. Jesus called the disciples and us as well to do his works. How can we do Jesus work this week?

Application Questions

1. Thomas and Peter seem to have legitimate questions that perhaps sometimes, we still ask today. If you were present there with Jesus, would you question what he was saying? What would you ask?
2. What do you think is going through minds of Jesus's followers as he is saying these things?
3. What's the main thing Jesus is trying to tell his followers (in your own words)?

Introduction Activity

This week is the official first day of Fall. What are some of your favorite things about Fall and why?

Reading

Read John 14:1-14

What stood out to you?

Prayer Activity

John 14 starts with a reminder to not let our hearts be troubled but to believe in God. As a group, read Psalm 63:1-8 together as a reminder of the confidence we have in God and what happens when we cling to Him and his truths. Then pray together, remembering the things that give you confidence in who God is.

Memory Verse

"Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

-John 14:6
