

Daily Prayers are posted at 8am daily on our Adventure of Faith Facebook & Instagram pages or use this calendar to pray through each day's prayer.

March 14 - 21

3/14

John 10:10: "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full."

Lord, help us to recognize that when we are enticed by the things of this world that those things only lead to the murder of our souls, the destruction of our relationships, the stealing of our affections. Let us focus our eyes on you and find life, to the full. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on John 10:10)

3/15

John 16:33: "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world."

Lord Jesus, you are our Messiah! Our Christ! Our Savior! We needn't worry because redemption for the world is found in you, stamped in your blood, validated by your rising from the grave! We love you! In your name we pray, Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on John 16:33)

3/16

Zephaniah 3:17: "The Lord your God is with you, the Mighty Warrior who saves. He will take great delight in you; in his love he will no longer rebuke you, but will rejoice over you with singing."

Lord, too often, we look at you like an overseer, evaluating our every sinful move, but Your character is more like a proud Father celebrating our every step, not disappointed in our every fall. Reorient our minds to see you as you truly are- a loving, kind, merciful God. Also, Father, reorient our minds to see ourselves as we truly are, as your beloved children. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Zephaniah 3:17)

3/17

John 3:14-18: "Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him." For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him. Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because they have not believed in the name of God's one and only Son."

King Jesus, you were lifted up that we may have life in you. Through you, we are saved. We rejoice in this reality. Thank you for your deep love for us that led you to the cross. In your name we pray, Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on John 3:14-18)

3/18

Micah 5:4: "He will stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God. And they will live securely, for then his greatness will reach to the ends of the earth."

Jesus, we await your return expectantly, hopefully, and patiently. Our desire is to be present with you, to experience what it was like to walk with you in the garden, but we know you are still working. We know that you are still working through us in this world. While we wait for you may we bring your Kingdom to bear on this world. Let us bring heaven here for our neighbors, our friends, and even our enemies. Come Lord Jesus. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Micah 5:4)

3/19

Joel 2: 1-2: "Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy hill. Let all who live in the land tremble, for the day of the Lord is coming. It is close at hand— a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness. Like dawn spreading across the mountains a large and mighty army comes, such as never was in ancient times nor ever will be in ages to come."

Lord, draw our eyes to the horizon, and may we look for you. Incline our hearts for that which is eternal, that which is coming, and relegate the things of this world to their appropriate place in light of the reality of your coming. We love you, Lord, and wait on you. Amen!

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Joel 2:1-2)

3/20

1 Timothy 4:1-5: "Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared, who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer."

Father, help us to discern what is from you and what we are being tempted by spirits, not of you. We desire to be obedient to your will, grant us wisdom and humility to be able to navigate life on this earth. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on 1 Timothy 4:1-5)

3/21

Colossians 2:16-17: "Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ."

Lord, too often we are judgmental with one another instead of extending grace and believing the best of one another. Help us to love first, and in that love, encourage one another in unity. In your name, we pray, Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Colossians 2:16-17)