

Daily Prayers are posted at 8am daily on our Adventure of Faith Facebook & Instagram pages or use this calendar to pray through each day's prayer.

March 21 - 28

3/21

Colossians 2:16-17: "Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ."

Lord, too often we are judgmental with one another instead of extending grace and believing the best of one another. Help us to love first, and in that love, encourage one another in unity. In your name, we pray, Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Colossians 2:16-17)

3/22

Isaiah 43:25: "I, I am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins."

Lord, we praise your name for the blessing it is that it is you who blots out our sins, for your sake and that you will not even remember them! May we embrace your Word and live into the reality that our sins are forgiven in you! Amen!

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Isaiah 43:25)

3/23

1 Peter 5:6: "Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time."

Lord, in our world, humility is not a virtue and yet in your Kingdom it is the product of a person realizing their place in the world- under your authority, in submission to your will. Humble us, Lord, that we might submit to you. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on 1 Peter 5:6)

3/24

Daniel 9:3: "Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes."

Lord, these days can seem very difficult for some of us. We may find ourselves in dark, difficult times. It may be due to our own sinful practices, sins committed against us, or even just the realization of the fallenness of this world. Regardless of what we are going through, may we turn our faces to you and find hope and peace in you. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Daniel 9:3)

3/25

John 17:17: "Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth."

Lord Jesus, your prayer for us to your Father, is that we would become sanctified through the Word of the Lord. May we saturate our hearts in minds in your Word that we might be transformed by your Spirit through them. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on John 17:17)

3/26

Romans 1:16-17: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith."

Lord, we need not be ashamed of the work you have done in our hearts, in our lives and in this world. May we embrace this truth and live by faith. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Romans 1:16-17)

3/27

Zechariah 9:9: "Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout, Daughter Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and victorious, lowly and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey."

King Jesus, you did not come like the King we expected, but you came as the King we so desperately needed. May we embrace the King you are, instead of seeking the King we desired- especially because the King we desired is so trivial compared to the King we received in you! Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Zechariah 9:9)

3/28 Palm Sunday

Luke 19:29-31: "When he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples, 30 saying, "Go into the village in front of you, where on entering you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat. Untie it and bring it here. 31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say this: 'The Lord has need of it.'"

Lord, sometimes faithfulness looks like obedience when it doesn't make sense to us. Help us to be like these disciples and trust you at your word and do what you would ask of us. Amen.

(A prayerful Lenten reflection on Luke 19:29-31)