September 12-18

Connection Sunday: The church body is to be an interconnected and supportive family that focuses their eyes on the Lord and seeks to encourage, equip, build up, and protect one another in unity and love. We are One Body, with One Spirit, serving One God.

Date	Daily Prayer
Sunday, September 12	“I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love...” Ephesians 4:1-2 Father, as we seek to live as one body, may we do so with all humility, gentleness and patience, bearing with one another in love. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)
Monday, September 13	“...eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call—“ Ephesians 4:3-4 Lord, may we be eager to maintain the unity of your Spirit, keeping in peace. Remind us that we are unified in you-one body with one Spirit. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)
Tuesday, September 14	“one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.” Ephesians 4:5-6 Lord Jesus, for all the division we see in your body every day, remind us that we serve one King, we have one faith, we are baptized under one Lord, God, and Father of all. Help us to act accordingly. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)
Wednesday, September 15	“But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift.” Ephesians 4:7 Father, it takes humility for us to be reminded that we are in deep need, every single day of forgiveness. Help us to remember our need for grace and to extend that grace to others. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)
Thursday, September 16	Therefore it says, “When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men.” (In saying, “He ascended,” what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower regions, the earth? He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.)”. Ephesians 4:8-10 Lord, the example you set for us- humbling yourself by coming to earth fully human though you are fully God. Out of love, you humbled yourself for us, may we do the same for others. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)

Friday, September 17	“And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. ” Ephesians 4:11-14 Father, you gave us many gifts, many gifted members of our body for the benefit of the body. Our gifts are not for ourselves, but for the body we serve. Help us to make sure that we don't hoard the blessings given to us and help us to use them for the good of your Bride. May we pursue maturity in You. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)
Saturday, September 18	“Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.” Ephesians 4:15-16 Lord, we are one body, given for the good of one another. Help us to take seriously our individual walks with you and how these impact our corporate walk as your body. Draw us closer together as we draw closer to you. Amen. (A prayerful reflection on the unified church)
