

БЛАГОВЕСТИЕ С ЛЮБОВЬЮ

ПРИТЧА О ЗАЖЖЕННОЙ СВЕЧЕ

Матфея 5:14-16; Луки 11:33-36

исус есть Сын Божий, посланный Господом на землю. Он пришел обновить завет, заключенный с Авраамом в глубокой древности. Послание, которое Иисус принес людям, было и учением, и Благой Вестью одновременно. Оно состоит в том, что всякий, уверовавший в Иисуса и принявший Его как своего личного Спасителя, получает в дар очищение от грехов и вечную жизнь.

У Иисуса были избранные ученики, которые постоянно

THE PARABLE OF THE LIT LAMP

Matthew 5:14-16; Luke 11:33-36

esus is the Son of God, sent to earth by the Lord. He came to renew the covenant he made with Abraham in ancient times. The message Jesus brought to the people was instructive and the good news at the same time. It consists of the fact that everyone who believes in Jesus and accepts Him as their personal Savior is granted the gift of forgiveness for their sins and eternal life. Jesus chose disciples who were constantly with Him and were called apostles. They listened to his teachings and saw all his works. They knew better than anyone else what Jesus taught. Therefore, he commanded them to preach the Gospel to all people and be the light to the world. Jesus compared His disciples to a lit lamp, which is not placed in a secluded place or under a basket but placed so that its light can be seen by everyone. The disciples followed Jesus' commandments and preached the gospel throughout the earth. Over time, people who accepted Jesus Christ into their hearts were called Christians. Christians who have found joy in God cannot remain silent. They encourage others to seek this joy as well. Therefore, they continue the work begun by the apostles - they bring the light of the Gospel to the world, which was first ignited by Jesus himself.
