ПРОКАЗА МАРИАМ

Числа 12:1-15; 1 Коринфянам 4:1-8

ог избрал Моисея и поставил пророком и вождем Израиля. Он, с помощью Бога, вывел народ из египетского рабства. Характер у Моисея был очень кроткий. Он не превозносился над народом и не гордился своим особым положением. У Моисея был брат Аарон и сестра Мариам. Они позавидовали ему и сами захотели руководить Израилем. Чтобы настроить народ против Моисея, они упрекнули его за жену Сепфору, ефиоплянку, дочь Иофора, хотя это не было грехом. А чтобы самим возвыситься в глазах народа, они заявили, что Господь говорит к ним так же, как к Моисею. В ответ на этот обман Господь явился в облачном столпе, стал у входа в Скинию и запретил им осуждать Моисея. Когда Господь отошел, то все увидели, что

LOVE AND RESPECT OUR MINISTERS

MIRIAM'S LEPROSY

Numbers 12:1-15: 1 Corinthians 4:1-8

n Old Testament times, the Lord brought the people of Israel out of Egypt and established Moses as their prophet and leader. Moses had a humble character; he did not boast and was not prideful of his special position.

Moses had a brother named Aaron and a sister named Miriam. They envied Moses and wanted to be recognized as leaders over Israel. To turn the people against Moses, they rebuked him for marrying Zipporah, the Cushite woman and daughter of Jethro. Although this was not a sin, they intended to shame him for marrying a foreigner. Additionally, they declared that the Lord spoke to them in the same way He spoke with Moses in order to exalt themselves in the eyes of the people. In response to these lies, the Lord appeared in a pillar of cloud, stood at the entrance to the Tabernacle and rebuked them for finding fault with Moses. When the Lord departed, everyone saw that Miriam was covered in leprosy; she was as white as snow. Aaron rushed to Moses and begged him for forgiveness for himself and his sister. Moses forgave them and pleaded with God, asking Him to heal Miriam. The Lord healed her, but the shame of her sin remained on her for another seven days. After these events, the people obeyed Moses without question, and no one dared to speak against him.

The ministers in the church are appointed by God to lead the people. The Lord sees their deeds and rewards them according to their actions. The people of God should show love and respect to their ministers
