NAME Article 1

The name of this church shall be Grace Community Church of Visalia.

PURPOSE Article 2

Grace Community Church of Visalia is a community of people that exists because of the life changing person of Jesus Christ. Therefore, we are committed as a church to so live as to inspire Christ-likeness by REACHING OUT (to others), by RAISING UP (each other), and REVERENCING CHRIST TOGETHER. It is with this vision that we endeavor to fulfill the instruction of the New Testament and evangelize, make disciples, and worship our God. Matthew 28:18-20; John 4:21-24; Acts 1:9; Acts 2:42-47; Acts 14:21-22; Acts 24:14; Romans 10:14-15; I Corinthians 14:25; Colossians 1:28

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Article 3

In Beliefs that are essential, we have unity. Ephesians 4:4-6

In beliefs that are nonessential we, have liberty. Romans 14:1, 4, 12 & 22

In all our beliefs, we show charity. 1 Corinthians 13:2

Section 1

We believe that the Bible (Old Testament and New Testament) is the inerrant and plenary Word of God and that "All scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of god may be thoroughly equipped for every good work." I Corinthians 2:13-16; II Timothy 3:16-17; II Peter 1:21

Section 2

We believe that the Godhead eternally exists in three persons- the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. These three are one God, having the same nature, attributes, and perfection. Genesis 1:26; Matthew 3:16; Matthew 28:19; Mark 12:29; I Corinthians 2:13-14

Section 3

We believe in the Personality and Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, eternally preexistent and eternally God, begotten of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, truly God and truly Man. Matthew 1:18-25; John 1:1-3, 14, 10:30; Galatians 4:4; Colossians 2:9; I Timothy 3:16; Hebrews 1:1-3; Revelation 1:8

Section 4

We believe in the personal return of our Lord Jesus Christ, that the coming again of Jesus Christ is the blessed Hope set before us for which we should be constantly looking. "Our citizenship is in heaven from whence we look for our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ." John 14:1-3; Acts 1:11; Philippians 3:20; Titus 2:11-14; I John 2:28, 3:1-3; Revelation 22:20; I Thessalonians 1:10, 4:13-18

Section 5

We believe that Jesus Christ became the sinner's substitute before God and died as a completely satisfactory sacrifice for the sin of the whole world, that He redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming accursed in our place, dying the just for the unjust according to the Scriptures. We believe that He rose, bodily, from the dead and with that victory accomplished the opportunity for the sinner to receive salvation. Matthew 28; Mark 16; John 1:29; Romans 1:4, 3:26; I Corinthians 15; II Corinthians 5:21; Colossians 2:14-23; Ephesians 1:7; Galatians 3:13, 4:9-11; I Peter 1:18-19, 23, 2:24, 3:18

Section 6

We believe that man was created in the image of God to serve God and enjoy Him forever, but that with Adam's sin, man fell from his relationship with God. We believe that the only salvation from our condition is the free gift of Grace offered by God through the work of Jesus Christ on the cross. Genesis 1:26, 3:6; II Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 2:1-3; Titus 3:5; John 3:3-8, 16-18, 36, 14:6; Romans 3:10-12, 23, 5:12, 6:23

Section 7

We believe Marriage has been ordained by God as the lifelong union of one man and one woman in the mutual and exclusive covenant of loving fidelity. In all matters of sexuality, the Biblical standard is defined by the Holiness of God and His instruction on marriage which prohibits all other forms of sexual activity. Genesis 2:24; Ephesians 5:22-33; I Corinthians 7:1-5; I Corinthians 6:15-20; Romans 1:21-27

Section 8

We believe that the Church is composed of all who truly believe in the Lord Jesus Christ as Savior. It is the body and bride of Christ. We believe that every believer, whether Jew or Gentile, is baptized into the body of Christ by the Holy Spirit and that no second work of grace manifested by special signs is necessary for salvation. We believe that having thus become members of one another, we are responsible to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Matthew 16:16-18; Romans 12:4-5; Colossians 3:14-15; I Corinthians 1:10-13, 12:12-27; Ephesians 1:22-23, 2:19-22

Section 9

We believe our Lord established two ordinances, baptism and the Lord's Supper (Communion), and that as often as we do, we do it remembering His death and resurrection. Matthew 28:19-20; I Corinthians 11:23-32; Acts 2:41, 19:4-5

Section 10

We believe in heaven and the eternal reward of the saved. We believe in hell and the eternal punishment of the lost. We believe in the reality and personality of Satan and that he works to keep men from God and to frustrate the growth of the individual Christian and the growth of the Church, both spiritually and numerically. Matthew 25:26; John 4:14, 5:24, 28-29; II Corinthians 11:14; Ephesians 2:6-7, 6:11-12; Hebrews 2:14-15; I Peter 5:8; Revelation 12:9, 20:1-3, 10

Section 11

We believe that Christ in all His fullness is received by faith alone and that the moment we trust Him as our Savior and Lord we pass out of death into everlasting life, justified from all things, accepted before the Father according to the measure of His acceptance, loved as He is loved, and made one with Him. John 1:12, 3:16, 5:24, 6:47, 10:27-29, 20:31; Colossians 2:6; Romans 4:5, 24-25, 5:1, 10:9-10; Ephesians 1:3-8, 2:4-9

Section 12

We believe that all believers should be careful to maintain good works and walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit. We believe that though the flesh is never eradicated in this life, it can be controlled by the indwelling of the Spirit of God as the believer increasingly submits to the indwelling of the Spirit of God, a life of purity expresses the sanctification of God in the believers' life. Romans 12:1-2, 14:13-21; II Corinthians 6:14-18; Galatians 5:16; Ephesians 2:10; Colossians 3:2-3; Titus 2:11-14; I John 1:4-10, 2:15-17

We believe in the Great Commandment, that we should love God with all of our being. We believe in the Great Commission, that it is our responsibility to make disciples of all nations, beginning at home, neglecting neither those in foreign countries nor those in our neighborhoods. Matthew 22:37, 28:19-20

POLICY OF AFFILIATION

Article 4

The government of this church shall be vested in the body which composes its membership. The church may, by action of its Board of Elders and confirmation by two-thirds vote of the members present at a Regular or Special Business Meeting, choose to affiliate and cooperate with other churches or groups of churches.

CHURCH COVENANT

Article 5

As a summary of objectives for Christian conduct among its members, this Church adopts the following Church covenant:

Having been led by the Spirit of God to receive the Christian faith and confess Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, and relying upon the Holy Spirit for guidance, we solemnly enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We resolve, by God's help, to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment.

Recognizing that God, who reconciled us to himself through the death of His Son, has now given to us the ministry of reconciliation, we shall constantly seek, as ambassadors for Christ, to bring reconciliation between men, and between men and God, both here and around the world.

We pledge ourselves to strive for the advancement of this Church in spiritual knowledge, holiness, and effectiveness of ministry; to work for its prosperity, harmony, and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances and disciplines, and to give Christ's Church sacred preeminence over all institutions of human origin.

We further covenant to watch over each other in brotherly love, to remember each other in prayer, to aid each other in sickness and distress, to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, being ready to forgive as we wish God to forgive us.

We moreover agree that when we shall remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other Church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

ORDINANCES

Article 6

Section 1: Baptism

Grace Community Church practices believer's baptism by immersion to those who have confessed Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord. Concerning the manner of baptism, any exemption to immersion for reasons of special circumstances must be approved through petition to and action of the Board of Elders.

Section 2: Communion

The ordinance of Communion shall be observed at times determined by the Board of Elders.

RELATIONAL COMMITMENTS

Article 7

Section 1: Definition - Are designed to help the people who attend our church relate to one another in a way that honors God and promotes authentic relationships. These commitments are required for membership and are intended to help us build a strong community of faith. By community we mean a group of people who inspire Christlikeness by reaching out, raising up and reverencing Christ together.

Section 2: The Commitments

- A. To Protecting our Children and Students – Children are a blessing from God, and He calls the church to support parents in their responsibility to train children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord. The following are required to protect the children and students of our church.
 - 1. Read and have a working knowledge of the particular ministries handbook.
 - 2. Complete the volunteer application for the particular ministry.
 - 3. Submit to a criminal background check.
 - 4. Church membership is required to serve in our children's and student ministries.
 - 5. Church membership isn't required, although encouraged, for some special or annual ministries, but all who serve in these ministries must be approved by the director or pastor of the ministry.
- B. To Peacemaking and Reconciliation – In all conflicts as members of Grace Community Church of Visalia our primary goal will be to glorify God in all that we do by...
 - 1. Acting in love towards other members. 1 Peter 3:8; John 13:34-35
 - 2. Overlooking minor offenses. Proverbs 19:11
 - 3. Going promptly in the case of serious offenses to the one that offended you to seek reconciliation with gentleness and respect. Matthew 5:23-24; Matthew 18:15; Ephesians 4:29
 - 4. Refusing to Gossip. 2 Corinthians 12:20; 1 Peter 1:22

5. Seeking the help of wise people in our church as directed by scripture when you and the other person can't solve the issue. Matthew 18:16
 6. Obeying God's command in legal disputes to not go into civil court but to seek assistance from church leaders. 1 Corinthians 6:1-8; Hebrew 13:17
- C. To Preserving Marriage - We believe God established marriage to be a life-long, exclusive relationship between one man and one woman. But we also recognize that some marriages fail for a wide range of circumstances. Some go through divorce before having a relationship with Christ, others experience divorce through no desire or decision of their own, and some make wrong choices but have since experienced the repentance and forgiveness of our Lord, therefore, we welcome everyone no matter their marital status or situation. In order to preserve marriage as members of Grace Community Church of Visalia we...
1. Require and provide premarital counseling to ensure that couples enter into marriage advisedly and well prepared.
 2. Provide counseling and support to couples who face difficulties.
 3. Recognize that divorce is prohibited in scripture and therefore with only a few exceptions is not an option for our members. Malachi 2:16; 1 Corinthians 7:10
 4. Believe divorce is permissible when a spouse has violated the marriage covenant. Matthew 5:31-32; 1 Corinthians 7:12-16
 5. Recognize that even though divorce under these conditions is permissible, it is not encouraged. Reconciliation should be sought in all situations. Colossians 3:12-13; 2 Corinthians 5:17-19
 6. When a member considers divorce at Grace Community Church, a Pastor's counsel is essential to discerning if divorce is permissible or not. Proverbs 10:13; Hebrews 13:17
 7. Separated spouses who have filed for divorce should consider themselves married until the day a civil court issues a divorce decree and, therefore, should not date or be involved in any activity that is inconsistent with being married.
- D. To Confidentiality - The Bible teaches that Christians should carefully guard any personal and private information that others reveal to them. Protecting confidences is a sign of Christian love and respect. Our leaders will carefully protect information they receive through pastoral counseling and are subject to the following guidelines.
1. We cannot promise unqualified or unconditional confidentiality. 1 John 1:7
 2. Confidentiality means that the leader is trusted to take the appropriate action with the information that is given. Hebrews 13:17
 3. In pastoral counseling our leaders do not share personal information with other leaders, but, our leaders reserve the right to seek advice when they are unsure how to counsel in extreme situations.

4. We will take action with any information that puts a person in imminent danger or harm. Proverbs 24:11
 5. According to the law we are mandated reporters and required to report suspected cases of abuse. Romans 13:1
- E. To Accountability and Church Discipline – God has established the church to reflect His character, wisdom and glory in the midst of a fallen world (Eph. 3:10-11). This doesn't mean that God expects the church to be made up of perfectly pure people (Rom. 3:23). We are called to spur one another on towards maturity by encouraging and holding each other accountable to love, seek after, and obey God. The Bible sometimes refers to this process of mutual encouragement and accountability as discipline. The Bible never presents church discipline as being negative, legalistic or harsh, as modern society does. True discipline originates from God himself and is always presented as a sign of genuine love. Therefore, we as a church are committed to helping one another obey God's command to be "self-controlled, upright, holy and disciplined" (Titus 1:8)
1. Most discipline is private, personal and informal and takes place as our members study God's word, seek him in prayer, are filled with the spirit and interact with his people through His church. 2 Timothy 1:7
 2. On occasion believers are blinded to sin. We are committed to giving and receiving loving correction within our church. Galatians 6:1; Matthew 18:15
 3. If repeated personal counsel does not lead to repentance, the direction of Jesus to involve others is followed. Matthew 18:16
 4. If the individual still persists in their sin, the leadership of the church is informed and they will strictly follow the commands of Jesus. Matthew 18:15-17
 5. If the individual still refuses to change, then our leaders may formally remove the individual from membership. Matthew 18:17
 6. The membership of the church will be informed of the action taken and instructed to follow the commands of God's word for these rare situations. Titus 3:10; 1 Corinthians 5:11
 7. Voluntary resignation from membership cannot be used to preempt or preclude church discipline.
 8. While under discipline if the individual attends another church we reserve the right to inform the leadership of the church they are attending.
 9. Someone who is under biblical discipline from another church will not be allowed to join our membership until reconciliation has been pursued at their former church.
