

About Lady Karleen Bogan,

Lady Karleen Bogan is a native of Flint, MI. She attended Rhema Bible Training Center and graduated, along with her husband, in 1999. She is currently the assistant Director of Women's Ministries for Harris Memorial COGIC.

Lady Karleen is highly motivated and spiritually qualified to lead women. She is a woman who believes in doing the work of the Lord in the spirit of excellence, and she confidently leads women by example.

Lady Karleen values the fact that she depends on the Lord for wisdom and direction. She desires for women to be saved, holy, and examples in the home, the church and in their community. She also believes that women today must be mature, maintain their focus and find their place to serve in ministry that they may become an asset to the body of Christ rather than a hindrance.

Lady Karleen is a loving and supportive wife to Pastor Eric C. Bogan. Together they have three wonderful children: Kolby Shantel, Blake Harris and Luke Emile. The family resides in Grand Blanc, MI.
