Ashes have been smeared and sins have been confessed...
We follow our faithful Lord.
These times, they are troubling. This journey, it is hard...
We follow our faithful Lord.
It is God Who sustains, not the temptations of this world...
We follow our faithful Lord.
In the Lord is our trust, our protection from harm...
We follow our faithful Lord.
Come, let us worship the One Whom we serve...
We follow our faithful Lord.

Prayers of the People Rev. Heaton
Congregational Prayer Rev. Heaton

Our Lord, Creator, Sustainer, Redeemer, and Comforter. The Great I Am. One and All as I am one with Thee. You are but Love and Your Love leads to Good. You move in our lives and make a way. You knew us before we were born. You know our needs before we ask. You Give fully and openly. Your children are fighting. Your children are angry. Your children are in fear. Bring us together again – bind us fully as You bind the wounded. We know but do not understand. We ask to be as You. To be with You as You are with us. To be in Your Heart and You are in our heart. We are confident in Your guidance. We are brave in Your arms. We will move in this world as You move in the world beyond. We know Your Power for Good and we are grateful for Your Love. Amen.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Altar Arrangement is created to depict the transformational power of the Lenten Season to take us from the ashes to beautiful fabric as we follow Jesus on his journey to the Cross.

The Spinning Wheel on the alter is on loan from the National trust through Bell Grove Plantation.

Mending the FABRIC of our Lives

March 20 ~ 3rd Sunday in Lent

Sewing ~ Betty Lou Langager

We use the patterns God gives us to be co-creators

Mending the FABRIC of our Lives - Today we welcome back Micki Smith (a spinner and weaver) from Brazen Sheep in Berryville and Norma Johnson (needle lady). Each week in Lent we will be creating different items to show how we take something simple and turn it into something useful and beautiful.

THANK YOU to Susan Hill, David Landrum, Sherry Ford, Marilyn Cockey (a neighbor of Sherry's), and Lorraine Shelton for taking their time to make the pocket prayer cloths you were given today. There are different sizes - the smaller ones you can carry in your pocket; the bigger ones you can place on a table, night stand, or on the dashboard of your vehicle. It is not a good luck charm or guardian angel. It is to remind you to pray in all circumstances and know that God will always be with you wherever you may be. Please keep the one you were given for yourself and take one for someone you know who needs the assurance that God loves them and is always with them. If we run out and you still want one, please see Lorraine and she'll be sure you get one.
