Remembering the Saints

Blessed are the dead who from now on die in the Lord. "Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them." (Revelation 14:13 NRSV)

With great love and great respect, we remember these Christian friends who have gone to be with the Lord since last All Saints' Day:

We give You thanks, O God, for all the saints who ever worshiped You, whether in arbors or cathedrals, wooden churches or cement meeting houses. We thank You, God, for hardworking saints, whether hard-hatted or aproned, blue-collared or three-piece-suited. They left their mark for You, for us, for our children to come. →

Thank You for the sacrifices made by those who have gone before us. Bless the memories of your saints. May we learn how to walk wisely from their examples of faith, dedication, worship, and love. AMEN.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,

always and everywhere to give thanks to You,

Father Almighty (almighty God),

Creator of heaven and earth: God of Abraham and Sarah,

God of Miriam and Moses, God of Joshua and Deborah,

God of Ruth and David, God of the priests and the prophets,

God of Mary and Joseph, God of the apostles and the martyrs,

God of our mothers and our fathers,

God of our children to all generations.

And so, with Your people on earth and all the company of heaven,

we praise Your name and join their unending hymn:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Holy are You, and blessed is Your Son Jesus Christ.

By the baptism of His suffering, death, and resurrection

You gave birth to Your Church, delivered us from slavery to sin and death, and made with us a new covenant by water and the Spirit.

On the night in which He gave himself up for us, He took bread, gave thanks to You, broke the bread, gave it to His disciples, and said: "Take, eat; this is My body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me. "When the supper was over, He took the cup, gave thanks to You, gave it to His disciples, and said: "Drink from this, all of you; this is My blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." And so, in remembrance of these Your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Pour out Your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by His blood. Renew our communion with all your saints, especially those whom we name before You —

Claude Bennington	Marshall Carper
Jim Dick	Bill Look
Charlotte Notzelman	Melvin O'Dell
Evelyn Perry	Doug Ruckman
Phyllis Tharpe	Norm Tisinger, Jr.

Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, strengthen us to run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the Pioneer and Perfecter of our faith. By Your Spirit make us one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes in final victory, and we feast at His heavenly banquet. Through Your Son Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit in Your holy Church, all honor and glory is Yours, almighty Father (God), now and forever.

*Hymn When We All Get to Heaven UMH 701

*The Benediction Rev. Heaton

*Choral Benediction Go Now and Live for the Savior

Go now and live for the Savior. Go, may this joy be your joy too. Go, may this presence ever guide you. Go, live this life the whole day through.

Miss Vicky and Miss Beth will invite those ages 3-9 to accompany them to the nursery room for a Children's Church program of story, song, and prayer, to last about 15 minutes. Then the children will be returned to their parents in the sanctuary for the time of communion and closing hymn. Parents are welcome to join their children in Children's Church, if desired. All who enter the nursery room will need to wear a mask. Parents are welcome to email Beth Heaton with any questions at elscanoe@yahoo.com. Out of caution for unvaccinated children, Kernstown UMC is not yet offering a traditional nursery care during the worship service. All children of any age are always welcome to attend worship service in the sanctuary with their family.
