

A few ways to initiate, and begin serving and investing time with your neighbors...

Do a block party bbq and invite neighbor

Do life with your neighbor or friend

- have a task and ask someone to join you (grocery/hardware store run)

Ask neighbor if they would like a hand on a task, or jump in when you see them working on something.

Friday night fire-smores

Invite them to a men's or women's ministry event (all relational, nothing spiritual)

Start a discussion group and invite your neighbors

- Dad's discussing parenting with beverages and brats provided
- Moms discussing challenges of a work/life balance
- others?

Fishing

- just adults or do father/son, mother/daughter thing

Offer to watch others children for parents to have a night out

Mom's night out
