

Looking to connect with “neighbors” you haven’t met yet? Here’s a few ideas to get you going!

The gist of it:

1. Find a group outside the church that you are passionate about or has similar interest.
2. Be intentional about seeing that group as a mission field.
3. Look for opportunities as you get to know new people to pray for them, care for them, and share your story with them.
4. Find a house group that can support you and keep you accountable.

Some ideas of where to start:
