

GIVEN BY PASTOR JOHN KILPATRICK MAY 22, 2022 AT CHURCH OF HIS PRESENCE

ON THIS DAY, May 22, 2022, we have come together to establish a personal storehouse. This storehouse is established for God's blessing to rest upon it as a hen rests upon her eggs. You have heard the call of the Father. He called for a storehouse, and you said, "Yes Lord, I heard Your call."

YOU NO LONGER HAVE A SURVIVAL MINDSET, but your thinking has experienced a metamorphosis. You will be like a Joseph and have provision when the days are not prosperous. You shall have plenty when other inventories are empty.

I BLESS YOUR STOREHOUSE to experience exponential growth. I proclaim that miracle manifestations and testimonies will break forth in your storehouse. Just as the widow's meal barrel and cruse of oil defied her circumstances, your storehouse shall also defy poverty, leanness, and want.

THE LORD WILL CAUSE HIS BLESSING to rest on your investment. His blessing will cause you to be in awe, and you will know it is not a normal thing but a supernatural thing that has occurred. The Lord will be diligent in watching over your storehouse. He will give His angels charge over your harvest to ensure that your reaping is abundant, on time, and that nothing destroys it. I speak over you that your reaping overtakes the sowers. Your harvest shall be the maximum.

GOD'S ANGELS are going where you cannot go and doing what you cannot do. Their sickles are not natural but supernatural. I declare that they are in your fields right now. You gave up on some fields long ago and thought they had nothing more for you, but there are gleanings which belong to you. The angels are reaping them for your storehouse right now.

GOD HAS PRESERVED YOUR INTERESTS. Angels are whispering in the ears of those that owe you money, and the money will come back to you. They must give it up! The angels are breaking the lock off of the treasures of darkness where Satan has kept stolen goods. I speak boldly that he cannot keep what is not rightfully his. God's angels will retrieve and return what is yours. It will happen suddenly!

GOD IS A FAITHFUL AND JUST GOD. It is declared in the Holy Scriptures that the thief must pay back double. Job is the example God has set forth. Now you have a storehouse to contain what Satan once held.

I BLESS YOU TO REMAIN HUMBLE as you witness firsthand the bounty of the Lord. I bless you to maintain integrity like Joseph during the midst of great blessing. May your heart remain contrite.

THE LORD WILL DO YOU GOOD. He will cause His face to shine upon you. The thickness has thinned. The blockages are now moving through your conduit. Something has changed! As metal is drawn to a magnet, God's blessing is coming to your storehouse, even as I speak. Now, lift up your head and see the blessing of the Lord being poured out on your storehouse in this new season!

I BLESS YOU THIS DAY, May 22, 2022, in Jesus' Name!
