Good News: When the Good News Becomes Bad News

Mark 2:13-3:35

What is a time when your good news felt like bad news for someone else?

See the escalation in resistance to Jesus' good news in Mark 2:1-3:6

- 2:6 - teachers of the law thinking to themselves
- 2:16 - Pharisees questioned Jesus' disciples
- 2:18 - people asked Jesus
- 2:24 - Pharisees accused Jesus of breaking the law
- 3:2 - teachers of the law looked for a reason to accuse Jesus
- 3:6 - Pharisees plotted to kill Jesus

In each story, 1) Why was this bad news for them? 2) How might this become bad news for us?

- 2:13-17 - the call of Levi
- 2:23-3:6 - challenge of Sabbath keeping
- 3:20-35 - Jesus' family and teachers of the law

How can you keep from letting Jesus' good news become bad news for you?
