

Pamela Ward, Chief Operating Officer

Pamela Hopson Ward, Chief Operating Officer is a seasoned professional with nearly three decades of experience in the field of banking and business administration and has experience running Christian non-profit ministries. Pam's goal is to make a difference wherever she serves. She has served as President of a Christian Counseling Center, served as VP of Christian City Home for Children, and served as Director of Alumni Relations at Point University, her alma mater.

Pam went to India in October, 2017 and loved ministering to the lepers, orphans and widows. She was able to speak at several schools and the Pastor's Conference. Since Pam previously ran a children's home for 10 years, she especially loved serving the children in our Hope Homes (orphanages). Pam has developed and led women's retreats and workshops throughout the southeastern United States and enjoys sharing her own story and encouraging and inspiring women to be used by God. With Scripture as her foundation, every presentation is inspiring and a call to action for every woman.

Pam is married to Leon Ward. They live in West Point, GA and are members of Spring Road Christian Church.
