

Taking It Further 1/31/21

THIS is Living!—Finding LIFE in My Work!

- 1) Have you ever wondered if the activity you fill yours with—whether school, work, homemaking, or other—is ‘significant’? Have you ever thought it was a ‘waste of time’?

- 2) Pastor Dave said, “If You count your days from God’s perspective, God’s perspective will make your days count”. What do you think he meant by that? Do you agree or disagree?

- 3) Read Romans 12:1. What would change if you approached your ‘vocational time’ - your main daily activity—this way?

- 4) In what ways do you think God is using your vocational time challenges to refine and strengthen you?

- 5) There are challenges in any daily environment, whether work, school, or home. How could approaching it according to Colossians 3:17, 22-24 make a difference for you?

- 6) What would change if you approached your vocational time as a ‘Mission’ from God?
