- I. Sustain a consistent personal prayer life.
  - A. Luke 11:1
  - B. There was something tangible about Jesus' prayer life that caused the atmosphere to shift and the disciples seen this.
  - C. Nothing changes, nothings shifts until you begin to pray.
  - D. Prayer connected Jesus directly to the power and authority to deliver the oppressed by casting gout their demons. In His hours that He spent with the father, empowered the minutes He spent with those needing deliverance.
  - E. Jesus' prayer life:
    1. Opened the heavens
    2. Caused God's power to be manifested everywhere He went.
    3. Helped Him to choose His disciples.
    4. Filled Him with the power to heal the masses and to deliver people from demonic possession.
    5. Caused God's power to permeate His body and clothing.
    6. Produced authority and the anointing for the disciples to heal the sick (Lune 9 and 10)

7. Enabled His disciples to receive a revelation of His true identity.
8. Awakened within His disciples a desire to pray.
9. Taught the disciples the need for prayer
10. Produces zeal for God's House.
11. Kept Peter's faith from failing in the midst of the trial.
12. Led Him to fight and win the war against death.

II. Operate in the Spirit of Wisdom and Revelation.

- A. Mark 16:17-18
- B. These signs are to follow the believer.
- C. When we renew our minds according to His thoughts (Word of God) He then gives us the concept of how. This is why we need the Spirit of Wisdom and Revelation. (Ephesians 1:17-18)
- D. 1 Corinthians 2:9 (NKJV)
- E. Entering into the supernatural takes more than confessing and declaring, more than believing or personal effort. Those who receive the spirit of wisdom know how to manifest the signs of God's power.

III. Persist in Continuous Corporate Prayer and Intercession.

- A. Loosens God's presence to perform miracles and healings.
- B. Psalm 133
- C. Atmosphere of the church is built upon prayer and intercession. No intercession and prayer, no miracles, signs and wonders.

IV. Offer continual thanksgiving, praise and worship to God.

- A. Psalm 22:3 (NKJV)
  1. The word praises is translated from the Hebrew word "tehillah" which means "praise," "a hymn," or "song of praise." A joyful song that praises the powerful deeds of our Lord.
  2. Enthroned. (Heb) "yashab." Meaning to dwell, to remain or to sit. God wants more than just to pay us a visit. He wants to stay, to get comfortable, and to govern His people who rejoices in His victories.

- B. Thanksgiving. We Recognize God's goodness.
  - 1. Psalm 100:4 (NKJV)
  - 2. Word of God teaches us that we must always give thanks for everything. (Ephesians 5:20; Philippians 4:6)
- C. Praise. We recognize God's greatness and amazing works. .
Praise is the proclamation and declaration of His powerful deeds, expressed with jubilee and excitement through music, applause, shouts and dance. (Psalm 145; 148 and 150.)
- D. Worship. In worship, we recognize God's majesty, sovereignty, and glory. The Hebrew word for worship means to prostrate oneself in homage to God, to bow down. In the New Testament , one of the Greek words for worship is "Proskuneo" meaning to prostrate oneself in homage or reverence.
  - 1. Matthew 15:25 (NKJV)
  - 2. Worship of God should be a humble, respectful attitude and reverence toward Him expressed outwardly by our physical posture through acts of unselfish and sacrificial services.
  - 3. Praise proclaims God's powerful works while worship offers Him humble reverence for who He is.
- E. Now Principles of Praise and Worship
  - 1. Once we have truly thanked, praised, and worshipped God, His glory will descend.
    - (a). Isaiah 6:304
  - 2. Worship is a mandate, it has nothing to do on how we feel.
  - 3. Genuine worship is complete when we forget ourselves and focus only on God.
  - 4. God reveals Himself through Worship, and this means that true worship indicates He is among us, manifesting His presence.
  - 5. Praise and worship elevates us beyond ourselves to be conscious of God. (John 4:24)

6. Worship reveals where God is. "A place called there."
  - (a). Matthew 18:20 (NKJV)
  - (b). If we want to know where God is, we must worship Him there.
    - (1). Adam – Garden was there (Genesis 2)
    - (2). Jacob – Lord is in this place (Genesis 28:16)
    - (3). God's People – Desert was there (Genesis 28:10-16; Exodus 20:18-21)
7. The level of raise and worship will determine the kinds of miracles that will manifest in a place.
  - (a). We must always strive to raise the level if we want to see His glory.
  - (b). Hebrews 12:1 (NKJV)
  - (c). If you are not ready to let go of the weight of sin, you will never go higher or reach the next level in intimacy and God's glory.
8. Worship is defined as intimacy that produces life.
  - (a). If our worship can not produce life, it is dead.

Worship involves an intimate relationship with God.
9. Praise and Worship release the atmosphere of glory.
  - (a). When we enjoy a time of intimacy with God, His plans will be berthed.
  - (b). If we are worshippers in spirit and truth, we will edify God's throne and build a dwelling place that he can inhabit among our new songs which will be given by the His Holy Spirit. This type of worship will heal the sick, create miracles, transform lives and glorify God.

V. Build a Spiritual Atmosphere.

- A. What is an atmosphere? In science, the Atmosphere is the layer of gases surrounding a planet. In the realm of the Spirit, the atmosphere is the cloud of God's presence that surrounds a believer. (Example: Going outside when it is cold and breathing and you see your breath when you exhale.)

- B. Praise and worship produces the breath of God in our midst and His breath gives life.
  - C. We must create a heavenly atmosphere for miracles, healings and wonders to take place, an ambiance in which we are able to see the manifestations of the words we speak in faith.
    - 1. Mark 6:5-6 (NLJV)
    - 2. Their unbelief hindered Jesus from operating in mightier things and hindered them from receiving.
    - 3. Worship establishes the divine atmosphere on earth!
  - D. How to discern, Release and Receive from the Spiritual Atmosphere.
    - 1. We must perceive or discern the atmosphere in any given place.
    - 2. We must loosen and declare what we perceive as spiritual in the atmosphere (healings, miracles, financials breakthroughs, peace, etc) (Matthew 18:18-19)
    - 3. We must take and receive what is loosed in the atmosphere discerning what type of spiritual atmosphere that may have existed there previously.
- VI. Understand the Law of Expectation.
- A. Acts 3:1-5 (NKJV)
  - B. Faith manifests what was already predetermined; therefore, faith expects something to happen.
  - C. As believers, we must always expect to receive a miracle, a healing, a deliverance, or some other supernatural work.
  - D. The expectancy from the people of God will cause His power to manifest healing in their midst.
- VII. Declare the Rhema Word of God beyond any doubt!
- A. We cannot declare the Word of God without having foreknowledge of what will happen. If we don't want something to happen, we shouldn't declare anything

- B. There should be no doubt in our minds that the words we speak will accomplish what they were sent to do (Isaiah 55:11)
- C. To move into the supernatural we must go beyond the natural, material realm. We must begin to exercise dominion over the laws of nature. (Palm 33:16 NKJV)
- D. To activate God's supernatural power, we must be able to respond to the spiritual atmosphere generated by thanksgiving, praise and worship.

VIII. Exercise the Law of Response.

- A. Many Christians have seen excesses and abuses omitted by those who claim to walk in the supernatural, and they have therefore rejected the concept completely. Some religious people resist the miraculous because they think it has to do with the emotions exclusively.
- B. We must learn to respond to genuine supernatural power without fear and skepticism.
- C. Luke 5:17 (NKJV)
  - 1. The atmosphere was ready to produce miracles, still, nothing of the nature appeared to be happening.
  - 2. Someone had to take hold of the supernatural and it just so happens it was a bedridden boy whose friends lowered him down from the ceiling. The place was packed, no one else was being healed and someone had to discern the atmosphere and respond with an expectation!
- D. The power of God meets every need; His grace encompasses all things- healing, deliverance, and so forth.
- E. God's power is present, it is waiting for us to respond, regardless of what we need, whether physical healing or creative miracle, such as a new bone, internal organ, eyesight, hair growth, muscle growth or anything else.

- IX. Act on your faith with Supernatural Boldness
- A. Mark 16:15 (NKJV)
  - B. The Greek Word for “go” is poreuomai, which can mean to travel, to depart or to make a journey. We can never be used by God to perform miracles by His supernatural power if we don’t go.
  - C. Go implies continuous action.
    - 1. Isaiah 8:18 (NKJV)
    - 2. This applies to us as well when Jesus Christ broke down the middle wall of separation. (Ephesians 2:15; Acts 4:29-30)
  - D. Jesus is a much the miracle maker today as He was when He walked the earth and when He worked through the early church. Humanity needs a touch of His miraculous power as never before.
  - E. Whenever a man or woman of God demonstrates supernatural boldness and faith in God’s word, there are healings, miracles, signs and wonders and people are drawn to Christ.
    - 1. Acts 5:12,14-16 (NKJV)
    - 2. What was their response? What was the result?
