Christians being persecuted – Guinea (Africa): When Miraha's husband died, his parents pressured her to marry another son and to convert to Islam. She refused to abandon her faith in Jesus. The family held her captive until she escaped. Another believer in that city opened her home to Miraha. She found work in a restaurant but was compelled to quit when the proprietor insisted that she sleep with him. Pray that Miraha will find work and that her relatives will come to know Jesus.
