

Curtis & Debra Couch

June 2022 Prayer Letter

Dear Pastor and Church Family,

Greetings in the Name above every name! I trust all is well. My wife Debra and I have had Covid and are just now getting over it.

I have made arrangements to return alone to Chile in August with my pastor, Danny Moore, and my field director, Bruce Barry, so that we can turn over the work to a national pastor. Our daughter Tennille is making plans to fly back to the States to stay with Debra while I am away as she cannot stay on her own. We are just waiting for all of the travel restrictions to be lifted to make it easier for us to fly in and out. We ask that you help us pray that the timing will work out so that the church can officially be turned over to the new pastor, MARCELO JOFRE, as soon as possible. He has already been filling the pulpit in my absence, but it is time to officially turn the church over.

On a sad note, my mother, Dot Couch, passed away on May 3rd, after an unexpected cancer diagnosis. She went in with what we thought might have been an infection only to find out that she had cancer in multiple locations. The hospital worked to get her into hospice care quickly, as the only thing they could do was make sure that she was comfortable. Just 12 days after her first symptoms, she passed away at the hospice. We rejoice that she is in Heaven and will never experience any more pain.

Thanks again for your continued prayer and support for us as we make this trip.

Thank you!
In Christ's Service,
Curtis and Debra Couch
