

	FOCUS	INTERCESSORY PRAYER	PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING
WEEK 1: LEADERSHIP
1st	Parents, grandparents, heads of household	strength during this difficult time	grateful for parents, families, pulling together
2nd	Church Leaders	to remain strong and optimistic	thankful for the extra time spent during this pandemic
3rd	Local, state, national, and world leaders	that our leaders will make good decisions	their willingness to lead
4th	Military and Law Enforcement	they can stay safe and protect us	their willingness to serve
5th	Health Care workers, first responders, Scientists, essential workers	safety in these difficult times	their willingness to continue working
WEEK 2: EDUCATION
6th	Students	keep them safe and healthy	the eagerness to learn
7th	Teachers/Professors	keep them safe and healthy	their dedication to their students beyond the classroom
8th	School/College Administrators	keep them safe and healthy	their willingness to teach
9th	School College Support Staff	keep them safe and healthy	their willingness to work with students
10th	Extra Curricular activities and sports	prayers for students who are missing these opportunities that are very important to them	the coaches and leaders that are finding safe ways to continue these important activities
11th	Kids in underdeveloped countries that don't know what school is	pray that schools can be opened in areas where there are none	volunteers and mission teams that help bring learning to the fringes
12th	All students that do not have an adequate learning environment	that the resources can be made available for all children to learn	organizations and volunteers that work to make learning accessible to all
WEEK 3: THE LEAST OF US
13th	COVID patients, their families, and high risk people	prayers for healing and protection	those who have recovered
14th	unemployed, underemployed, working poor, struggling business	prayers for relief and jobs	organizations and volunteers that are helping
15th	former self sufficient people now struggling with hunger and nearing homelessness	they can get the help they need to avoid losing homes, or cars, or jobs	their willingness to keep fighting to stay ahead

16th	handicapped, elderly, nursing home residents	prayers for comfort, and protection	those who care for them
17th	homeless, shelter residents	they can find help in their situation	the Shelters
18th	Detainees, prisoners	their safety, and a new beginning	volunteers and organizations working to help them
19th	Racial Justice, victims of civil unrest	That all people can be treated equal and we can love one another	people willing to push for justice
WEEK 4: MENTAL AND EMOTIONAL
20th	Those who are Sad, Lonely, insecure, and Afraid	they may find comfort, peace, courage	Neighbors, friends, who take care of each other
21st	People struggling with any form of Addiction	they can be free from their addiction	The organizations and professionals that help
22nd	Victims of Domestic abuse/Violence	They find safety, support, comfort	shelters, and social workers
23rd	Mentally handicapped persons, unable to understand our new normal	They can find comfort and understanding	caregivers, and facilities that help
24th	Those who live alone	They can have people around them to support them	Neighbors, friends, who take care of each other
25th	Those who suffer or are persecuted for their faith	They do not lose faith, and are protected	The unyielding faith
26th	Everyone struggling with loss during this pandemic	They can find comfort, peace	for all the things we still have; family, friends, health, jobs etc
WEEK 5: HUMANITY
27th	Stamp out Negativity	prayers that we can see good over evil	Those who see the good in people
28th	Kinder Gentler Nation	prayers that we all just get along	Those who take care of neighbors and friends
29th	Accepting our differences, unity	that we can look past our differences and labels	Our younger generations who are modeling acceptance and unity of all
30th	Fair and Honest election and reporting	to keep evil, dishonesty away from our election	our freedoms and rights to cast a vote for our leaders