We've been captive far too long
Whatever it takes, what's Feels like freedom's just in each
Whatever it takes, whatever it takes
We know who made the way, now I'm/we're living everyday

Unleashed like a fire burning through ya, consuming ya
Unleashed feel the roar of a lion, it's rising up
Hear the sound as the chains are falling, here we come swing the doors wide open

Feel the tension now rising up
Whatever it takes, whatever it takes
We were made for so much more
Whatever it takes, whatever it takes
We stand as conquerors, so let the church now raise a roar

We know who made the way, Now we're living every every everyday
We stand as conquerors, so let the church now raise a roar
