V:

I could write a thousand songs

I could never understand it all

But I will sing to you

I could ask you why you made me

The way you did but that wouldn't save me

And you're still all I need

Ch:

You are the author and perfecter of my faith

With all my days I will sing your praise

and I will wait on your Word this world could never afford

The glory of your story to you be all authority

And praise

V:

I could know all there is to know

But I would still be alone

So I will live to know you

I could give all I am to have everything

But I would be nothing in light of eternity

And you're still King

Ch:

You are the author and perfecter of my faith

With all my days I will sing your praise

and I will wait on your Word this world could never afford

The glory of your story to you be all authority

And praise

B:

Sunrise to sunset

every word every breath

Held in your hand

it's all a part of your plan

From my worst day to my best

I know you never left

It's all a part of the story

It's all for your glory

(Just a line in the story of endless glory

Ch:

You are the author and perfecter of my faith

With all my days I will sing your praise

and I will wait on your Word this world could never afford

The glory of your story to you be all authority

And praise

V:

All these voices in my head

Telling me what to say or do

I don't want to give up

I don't want to fail

Lord that's when I give it to you

Ch:

It's time to lay down our burdens and look towards the cross

For the Lord sees what we have done, but He still shows endless love

He takes our burdens and sets us free, so we can live for him eternally

It's time to lay down our burdens and look towards the cross

V:

All the things happen around

Makes me feel lost and can't be found

When playing hide and seek, Lord, you've seen everything

Yet you still call me child

Ch:

It's time to lay down our burdens and look towards the cross

For the Lord sees what we have done, but He still shows endless love

He takes our burdens, and sets us free

So we can live for Him eternally

It's time to lay down our burdens and look towards the cross

Br:

You were there (x3)

You never left my side

You were there (x3)

In the middle of the night

I won't look back,

I won't look back on where I've been

With your love with your love I'm no longer a slave to my sin

Ch:

It's time to lay down our burdens and look towards the cross

For the Lord sees what we have done, but He still shows endless love

He takes our burdens and sets them free

So we can live for him eternally

It's time to lay down our burdens and look towards the cross

You were there (x3)

You were there (x3)

In the middle of the night

In the middle of the night, you never left my side
