Before Passover Cleaning out the Leaven: One of the best parts of Passover is cleaning ahead of time (no, we're not kidding)... When you begin to look through your cupboards for all of the Baking Soda, Bisodium Carbonate, or straight up Yeast, you will realize how much hidden "Sin" is lurking. This physical task may not seem fun but it will make Passover far more meaningful. Plus, what else do you have to do stuck at home? :)

What you will need to Follow along:

- Grape Juice or Red Wine
- Matzah
- Parsley
- Salt Water (the saltier the better!)
- Horseradish
- Charoset:

There are lots of simple online recipes so be sure to find one that fits with your taste! Here's one to try:

- Roasted Egg
- Lamb Shank: grocery butchers normally have these around this time of year
- A folded cloth napkin
- Glasses/Cups for each person who is participating

Dinner: While we are not eating together this year, we encourage you to eat a Passover meal with you family on the first night March 27th 2021. At our house we always include Matzah Ball Soup and Lamb (although isn't sacrificed) and yummy side veggies but have fun making up your own version of a perfect passover meal!

After the meal: consider enjoying the Afikomen, eating desert, and singing your favorite songs. Maybe read again one of Yeshua's Passover Narratives: Matthew 26:17-30, Mark 14:12-31, Luke 22:1-23, John 13:1-20
