

Pre-K-1st • Lesson 57

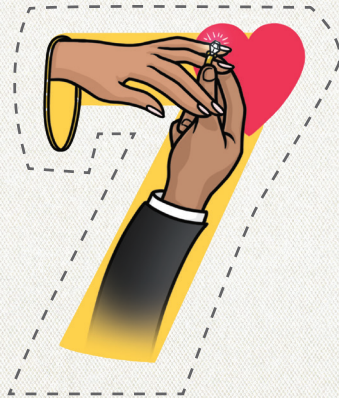

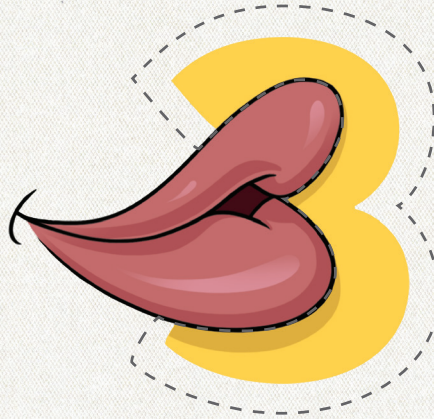

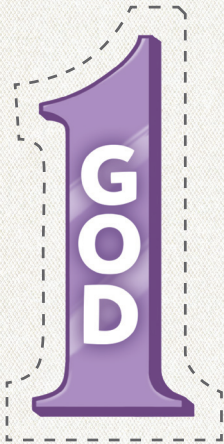

God Gives the Ten Commandments

Exodus 20:1-3, 20:7-8, 20:12-13, 20:15

Name

Ten Commandments

God gave the Ten Commandments, which are important for all of us. Trace the number around each picture. Can you remember what each commandment means?

What You Heard In the Word

- God gave the Ten Commandments to teach the Israelites (and us) how they should treat him and each other.
- Because none of us can keep the Ten Commandments perfectly, these commands also show us our sin and need for a Savior—Jesus.

Ask your child these questions from today's lesson:

1. Who should we honor with our words and put first in our lives? (Think about the first and third commandments.) God.
2. Who else should we honor by obeying them? (It's the fifth commandment.) Honor our parents.
3. The ninth commandment says we should not lie. What should we do instead? Tell the truth.

Memory Verse

And God spoke all these words,
saying, "I am the LORD your God,
who brought you out of the land of
Egypt, out of the house of slavery.
You shall have no other gods
before me."

Exodus 20:1-3

Justin & Jessie

"What kind of presents did Patrick get?" asked Dad.

"The best present was the Ultra-Max-Deluxe water shooter! It's so cool! I sure wish I had one of those," Justin sighed as he closed his eyes. "I just want it," he whispered to himself before he fell asleep and began to dream . . .

Oh no! Justin dreams that everyone is coveting someone else's stuff. Will this crazy dream ever end? Find out in "I Just Want It!"
