One More Thing!

Periodically CCO City Kids sponsors a fellowship, teacher training, or other events for the teachers. These are gatherings that any servant in the ministry should attend. They are planned for the whole ministry team's benefit and encouragement. Please plan to attend. That is part of being a team player.

I hope this application has not been a difficult task to complete. It is not CCO City Kids' intention to embarrass or belittle any applicant, but rather to safeguard this ministry that God has given us. I pray that your experience in CCO City Kids will be fun, fulfilling, and most of all blessed by God.

Applicant's Statement

The information contained herein is correct and true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that all the information given in this application will be kept confidential by the church staff. I further understand that the Children's Ministry has the prerogative of ending my service if sees it as being necessary.

Should my application be accepted, and engage in service to the Lord in the Calvary Chapel Children's Ministry, I will make every effort to attend worship services regularly, and I will do my best to perform my ministry as unto the Lord.
