

HE SHALL BE CALLED DISCUSSION GUIDE

This guide can be used in a personal quiet time or in a group setting to spark conversation.

He Shall Be Called: Pages 4-5

Advent is a season of anticipation. What do you look forward to during the holiday season? What causes stress during the holiday season?

Are there special things you do in preparation for Christmas each year? Do these activities help or hinder your ability to focus on the real splendor of Christmas?

Isaiah 9:6 refers to the following names: Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Which name or names do you hold most dear or look forward to studying?

Our Everyday Counselor: Pages 9-11

What do you think of when you hear the title counselor?

Describe Jesus using words that define His character traits. How do these traits make God a Wonderful Counselor?

How do you feel after consulting God's Word when you are experiencing conflict, difficult times, or when making important decisions?

The Mighty One: Pages 15-18

Who's your favorite real-life hero? Why do you admire them?

When you hear the word "mighty" what or who do you think of?

In what ways is Jesus the opposite of what the world considers mighty?

He Will Always Be There: Pages 23-26

How would you define the word "everlasting"?

Kristine Brown writes, "From the beginning of time, God created a way to be with us." How does this statement make you feel?

When do you feel most near you Everlasting Father?

The Gift of His Peace: Pages 31-33

What causes you to be worried or anxious?

Are there any verses of scripture that help relieve your worries and anxieties?

Can you recall a time that you felt God's peace with you?