VESPERS (LSB, p. 229)

- L O Lord, open my lips,
  - C and my mouth will declare Your praise.
  - L Make haste, O God, to deliver me;
  - C make haste to help me, O Lord.
- Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
Praise to You, O Christ, Lamb of our salvation.

Psalm 10:1–12 (antiphon, v. 12)

- L Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up Your hand; forget not the afflicted.
- C Why, O Lord, do You stand afar off? Why do You hide yourself in times of trouble?
- L In arrogance the wicked hotly pursue the poor; let them be caught in the schemes that they have devised.
- C For the wicked boasts of the desires of his soul, and the one greedy for gain curses and renounces the Lord. In the pride of his face the wicked does not seek Him; all his thoughts are, “There is no God.”
- L His ways prosper at all times; Your judgments are on high, out of his sight; as for all his foes, he puffs at them.
- C He says in his heart, “I shall not be moved; throughout all generations I shall not meet adversity.”
- L His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression; under his tongue are mischief and iniquity.
- C He sits in ambush in the villages; in hiding places he murders the innocent. His eyes stealthily watch for the helpless;
- L he lurks in ambush like a lion in his thicket; he lurks that he may seize the poor; he seizes the poor when he draws him into his net.
- C The helpless are crushed, sink down, and fall by his might.
- L He says in his heart, “God has forgotten, He has hidden His face, He will never see it.”
- C Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.
- L Arise, O Lord; O God, lift up Your hand; forget not the afflicted.

 cum - bered, Your sor - rows raised by wick - ed hands.

- 5 Your soul in griefs unbounded, Your head with thorns surrounded,
 You died to ransom me. The cross for me enduring,
 The crown for me securing, You healed my wounds and set me free.
- 6 Your cords of love, my Savior, Bind me to You forever,
 I am no longer mine. To You I gladly tender
 All that my life can render And all I have to You resign.
- 7 Your cross I place before me; Its saving pow'r restore me,
 Sustain me in the test. It will, when life is ending,
 Be guiding and attending My way to Your eternal rest.

Reading: Job 24:13-17

L A reading from Job, chapter 24.

<sup>13</sup>“There are those who rebel against the light, who are not acquainted with its ways, and do not stay in its paths. <sup>14</sup>The murderer rises before it is light, that he may kill the poor and needy, and in the night he is like a thief. <sup>15</sup>The eye of the adulterer also waits for the twilight, saying, ‘No eye will see me’; and he veils his face. <sup>16</sup>In the dark they dig through houses; by day they shut themselves up; they do not know the light. <sup>17</sup>For deep darkness is morning to all of them; for they are friends with the terrors of deep darkness.

- L O Lord, have mercy on us.
- C Thanks be to God.

Reading: 1 John 3:11–15

- L A reading from 1 John, chapter 3.

<sup>11</sup>For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. <sup>12</sup>We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. <sup>13</sup>Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. <sup>15</sup>Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

- L O Lord, have mercy on us.
- C Thanks be to God.

Reading: Matthew 23:29–36

- L A reading from Matthew, chapter 23.

<sup>29</sup>“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous, <sup>30</sup>saying, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup>Thus you witness against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup>Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. <sup>33</sup>You serpents, you brood of vipers, how are you to escape being sentenced to hell? <sup>34</sup>Therefore I send you prophets and wise men and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and persecute from town to town, <sup>35</sup>so that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of innocent Abel to the blood of Zechariah the son of Barachiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup>Truly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

- L O Lord, have mercy on us.
- C Thanks be to God.

Reading: Mark 14:1, 53–65

- L A reading from Mark, chapter 14.

<sup>1</sup>It was now two days before the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to arrest him by stealth and kill him, <sup>53</sup>And they led Jesus to the high priest. And all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes came together. <sup>54</sup>And Peter had followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he was sitting with the guards and warming himself at the fire. <sup>55</sup>Now the chief priests and the whole Council were seeking testimony against Jesus to put him to death, but they found none. <sup>56</sup>For many bore false witness against him, but their testimony did not agree. <sup>57</sup>And some stood up and bore false witness against him, saying, <sup>58</sup>“We heard him say, ‘I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another, not made with hands.’” <sup>59</sup>Yet even about this their testimony did not agree. <sup>60</sup>And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, “Have you no answer to make? What is it that these men testify against you?” <sup>61</sup>But he remained silent and made no answer. Again the high priest asked him, “Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?” <sup>62</sup>And Jesus said, “I am, and you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.” <sup>63</sup>And the high priest tore his garments and said, “What further witnesses do we need? <sup>64</sup>You have heard his blasphemy.

What is your decision?" And they all condemned him as deserving death. <sup>65</sup>And some began to spit on him and to cover his face and to strike him, saying to him, "Prophecy!" And the guards received him with blows.

- L O Lord, have mercy on us.
- C Thanks be to God.

Responsory (Lent)

LSB 231

- L Deliver me, O Lord, my God, for You are the God of my salvation.
- C Rescue me from my enemies, protect me from those who rise against me.
- L In You, O Lord, do I put my trust, leave me not, O Lord, my God.
- C Rescue me from my enemies, protect me from those who rise against me.
- L Deliver me, O Lord, my God, for You are the God of my salvation.
- C Rescue me from my enemies, protect me from those who rise against me.

Sermon: "Murderous Eyes" (Mark 14:1, 53-65)

- L Let my prayer rise before You as incense,
- C and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.

C Lord, have mercy; Christ, have mercy; Lord, have mercy.

Lord's Prayer

C Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

L O Lord, hear my prayer.

C And let my cry come to You.

L Lord Jesus Christ, we often have gazed with murderous hatred upon our fellow man. Look upon us with favor, forgive all our sins, and replace all hatred in our hearts with love for You and our neighbor; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

L Almighty and everlasting God, You despise nothing You have made and forgive the sins of all who are penitent. Create in us new and contrite hearts that lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness we may receive from You full pardon and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

L Lord Jesus Christ, You released many from their bondage to sin, death, and the devil as the healer of the nations. But when it came time to release You, the crowd chose a murderer instead. Through our co-crucifixion with You in the waters of our Baptism, may we continually be released from our sins as we confess You to be our everlasting King; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

L O God, from whom come all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works, give to us, Your servants, that peace which the world cannot give, that our hearts may be set to obey Your commandments and also that we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may live in peace and quietness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

Benedicamus & Benediction

L Let us bless the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

P The grace of our Lord † Jesus Christ and the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

C Amen.

This Lent, we will use the metaphor of eyesight to examine how the various people in Mark's Gospel viewed Jesus during His Passion. In most cases, they misunderstood who He was and what He was doing; then again, sometimes by faith people did recognize Him correctly.

We have these forty days of Lent in which we may look within ourselves as people of faith in our day. How are we like or unlike the people who saw Jesus in the flesh? Most important, as we gather for worship, we will see what Jesus has done to save us from our sins by His holy, precious blood and innocent sufferings and death.

Today, we take a look at the chief priests and scribes, who saw Jesus as an obstacle to be rid of by violence. Yet, during the Passover festival, they would unwittingly bring about the sacrifice of the ultimate Passover Lamb. How, then, should we view those who oppose the Gospel in our day? And how might these insights guide our prayers?
