“WHERE YOUR TREASURE IS THERE YOUR HEART WILL BE”

Matthew 6:19-24

“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, 23 but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! 24 “No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.

Our Father in heaven, Thank you for treasuring us so much that you gave your son to die and rise again for our salvation. We turn to him, receive him, trust him, and enthrone him as our Lord. We turn to worship you alone as God of our lives and our hearts. Free us from the blindness of materialism and help us to lay hold of that which is truly life. In Jesus name, Amen.
