BUILDING HEALTHY FAMILIES

Depression is associated with many things, but a weak faith is not one of them. Martin Luther himself struggled with depression as did many other church leaders. If you are feeling depressed, don't suffer alone. Luther had the right idea five hundred years ago when he wrote, "Solitude produces melancholy. When we are alone the worst and saddest things come to mind. We reflect in detail upon all sorts of evils. And if we have encountered adversity in our lives, we dwell upon it as much as possible, magnify it, think that no one is so unhappy as we are, and imagine the worse possible consequences." You don't have to suffer alone – call Lutheran Family Service! 4301 Sergeant Road, Ste. 203, Sioux City, Iowa 51106
