

Feel free to edit or reword questions to best fit your group. Check out this Facilitation Guide for tips on leading good discussions.

Group Connection (5-10 minutes)

Share your name and answer the following questions:

- As a child, what did you want to be when you grew up and why?
- What are some of the questions you may have regarding the Holy Spirit?

Opening Prayer

Use this time to pray the prayer here, or offer one that follows a similar form:

- Lord, thank you for everyone who is gathered here together in this group. I ask that the Holy Spirit may be present with our conversation and with each one of us. Bless this time, bless the conversation, and bless our questions that might come out of this time. Amen.

Discover What God is Saying (15-20 minutes)

Ask that people follow along in the Bible or Bible APP. You might consider looking up these passages online and share your screen to review them together.

Ask someone to recap the message in about a minute or two, and then ask the following questions:

- What about the message stuck out to you, caused you to ask a question, or affirmed something you already believed?
- How does this message impact the way you understand the Holy Spirit, and how you see the Spirit working within you?

Invite someone to read Galatians 5:13-14; 22-23, and then ask the following questions:

- What is your initial reaction on first hearing this Scripture?
- What do you make of the relationship between freedom and law with the Spirit?
- What does this passage say about us as people? About the Spirit?

Do What God is Saying (10-15 minutes)

The Big Idea: Tapping into the power of the Holy Spirit transforms us from who we are, into who God created us to be.

- What fruit do you see the Spirit working on in your life in your current season? What fruit seem like the hardest for you to grow? The easiest?

Life Connection: Give everyone a quiet minute to consider...

- What in me needs to be opened to DO what God is showing me today?
- How will you respond to this passage and/or the sermon message in a tangible way in the next three days?

Share What God is Saying (10-15 minutes)

Invite everyone to think about how they could listen to the nudging of the Spirit and share the answers to the following questions:

- Where can you surrender space to create room for the Holy Spirit? What can I let go of? What do I need to cling onto in life?

Closing Prayer

Once everyone has a chance to share their answers, invite everyone to keep one another in prayer this week.
