

1. Cain and Abel both knew about doing well.
2. Both knew what they were to sacrifice when they did not do well.
3. Cain thought he was righteous by not offering the right sacrifice, but rather sacrificed the work of his hands.
4. The way of Cain has two major parts:
 - a. Reject the counsel of God against you.
 - b. Murder/Persecute the righteous blood
5. The way of Cain would be the way for Israel’s leaders throughout their history.
6. The way of Cain would be followed by the Pharisees and Sadducees.
