Wow! :-)

Can you sense it? Are you seeing it?

God is working! He is drawing His body together more closely, in these days. He is waking up hearts every single day to new life in Jesus Christ, His only Son.

The WFRN Family is excited about the prayer gathering TODAY, at 5:00 PM, on the campus of Notre Dame University! It's at the most famous football stadium in the whole world, in the ballroom on the 7th floor. There's plenty of parking, and there will be volunteers there to point the way to you. For more info, head over to www.pureassembly.com

Please join us there if you can, in praying for awakening, revival, healing of every type, and new life arising in Jesus Christ, the Author of Life. If you can't physically be there this afternoon, then please pray together during that time, together with the on-site group at Notre Dame.

What does our good Lord have in store? Let's all stay tuned.... (while we pray!:))

God says, "If MY people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and PRAY and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and heal their land."

Praying together with you,
Doug

Pay Attention.

Written by Cody Collier

Pay Attention. Specifically to things that grab your attention.

I believe that God gave me a gift for observation. I don't really know how useful it is other than how well it seems to work with and complement other gifts that I have...
