Hello, friend! :-)

Here are a few of my favorite quotes on prayer, as WFRN counts down to the National Day of Prayer on Thursday, May 5:

- "If weak in prayer, we are weak everywhere." (Ravenhill)
- "Anything is a blessing which makes us pray." (Spurgeon)
- "Prayer is not an exercise - it IS the life." (Chambers)
- "Pray before you overthink it." (The Jesus Girl, somewhere online)
- "When asked, 'What is more important: prayer, or reading the Bible?' - I ask, 'What is more important: breathing in, or breathing out?' (Spurgeon)

Do you know that God remembers a prayer that your grandparents prayed for you decades ago as vividly as one being prayed right at this moment?

Revelation 5:8 talks about golden bowls full of incense before God's throne, which are the prayers of those who belong to Christ.

You may not remember your prayers from years ago - but God has collected them! How amazing that He loves those who trust in and belong to His Son, Jesus Christ, that much. :-)

If you're not already, we encourage you to join along with WFRN's 50 Day Countdown to the National Day of Prayer. There's a countdown at the top of WFRN.com, and we're having special guests every week, as we approach the first Thursday in May.

Let's pray together! :-)

Doug

The Bible tells us to pray without ceasing. That doesn't mean we bow down on our knees with our eyes closed 24/7. That's pretty impractical. But, if I simply talk to my Abba Father throughout the day, telling Him my requests and giving Him praise...
