

The Bi-Weekly Word

Newsletter

April 13th, 2022

Dear Friend,

What is your favorite name of Jesus?

God's Word reveals so many to us, that it is difficult to choose. But I'll share a few of my favorites with you:

- Author & Perfecter of our Faith (Hebrews 12:2) - He began it. And He'll complete it. And that is a *very great encouragement to me.
- Lion of the Tribe of Judah (Revelation 5:5) - This one is on the wall of the WFRN break room - and we love it. For both our good team and our honored guests, it reminds us and declares anew that He. Has. Overcome!
- "Rabboni!" (John 20:16) - This one chokes me up every time I read through the entire scene at the end of John's gospel (20:11-18). The name that Mary Magdalene cries out with great joy and affection, on what we now call Resurrection Morning (Easter), is the Aramaic word for 'teacher'. And while that He surely is, for all who know Him, there's so much more contained in her voice and heart when she surprisedly calls it out. I encourage you to go read it right now, in this week of Christ's great love for us.

Praying that your entire Easter weekend is a very special timer for reflection for you, as you listen to His voice and praise his Name.

Our King is coming - the Lion is about to roar,
Doug

I have yet another confession to make. I am not a fan of memorizing the Bible.

Not because I don't think it is an important weapon in our arsenal as believers, but...
