Hello, friend!

Does it feel like winter might never end?
I know that feeling too, my friend.
Winter was fun - for a while.
And then....
Well, it kept going.

They took down the lights, and our favorite Christmas treats were replaced with tighter clothing.
The cold has gotten old. Really old.
And we Michianders and Northern Hoosiers learned long ago that March can often be yet one more winter month.

So hold fast. And stand firm. Be of good cheer.
The winter is nearly over. Spring is almost here.

And that yearly change, which we are in the midst of now, is true of all our lives, as we live them in Christ.
Heads up, in the cold wind and the slippery walks --> New life is almost here! :-)

The harsh winds of late winter usher us on
To the new growth of spring
In the hard times of freezing, we keep singing our song

Christ has promised new growth
So we sing!

Romans 13:12
The night is nearly over; the day is almost here.
So let us cast away the works of darkness,
And let us put on the armor of light!

Your friend,
Doug
