Practicing the Presence of God starts November 17

7:00-8:00 PM, GH222, Pastor Tim Veenstra

Spiritual formation is the concerted personal effort and reliance upon the Holy Spirit to be molded piece by piece into the likeness of God. This is deeply rooted in individual devotion and in practicing the presence of God in community. This elective is NOT centered on teaching, but participatory exercises exploring spiritual disciplines. Growing in understanding that God sees us, God knows us, and God loves us will be the foundation of this journey. Come with a Bible, a journal, and a willingness to participate as we explore different methods of prayer, Bible reading, art, listening, worship, and more.

Faith, Feelings, and Following Jesus

7:00-8:00 PM, GH 223, Pastor Jason Rohde

2. How to Get Joy From Where You're At

November 14, 2021 / Philippians 2

It's a dead end street! The paths that we think lead us to joy often leave us disappointed and unfulfilled. While those paths can provide moments of pleasure, they only give us temporary happiness. They can take our mind off of our troubles, yet fail to deliver true, deep joy. Amidst brutal circumstances, the apostle Paul outlines a clear path towards deep, abiding joy. Walking that path is counter-cultural and counter-intuitive. In spite of that, God's path leads us to a deep, abiding peace. It's the way to live with joy in the journey.

What is this thing called joy?

Joy is a deep _____ found only in Jesus that transcends life's _____.

- There's joy amidst _____. —Philippians 1:7, 13, 14
Chains = We are stuck in circumstances over which we have absolutely _____.
- Joy helps us default to see the _____. —1:6, 12

So how do I get there?

J _____

O _____

Y _____

Jesus— _____ / _____ / _____ / _____

Others—Philippians 2:1-4, 19-22a

You—Philippians 2:12-13, 17

_____ it out...

...as you are _____ out!
