President's Message

County Budget Process Update to be Discussed by RHCA Tuesday

After seven years, Marty Williams is stepping down as editor of The Rambler. Her first edition was in advance of the March 2003 Rose Hill Civic Association meeting. She replaced Elizabeth Lambertson, who had served since 2000. Richard Downey, who grew up in Rose Hill, is taking over as Editor.

Marty and Richard both will be on hand at the RHCA meeting on Tuesday, February 23 beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the John Marshall Library. Plan to attend and thank Marty for her service to the community and welcome Richard as the new Editor.

For the last few years, Marty has edited The Rambler although she no longer lives in Rose Hill. She now lives at Belmont Bay overlooking the Occoquan River, Belmont Bay and the Potomac River in nearby Prince William County. She recently became a grandmother and is planning a fall wedding (her own).

There is no formal program for the meeting, although issues have a way of popping up between publication of The Rambler and the meeting date. We will update the County budget process (see item below).

Budget Deficit

As we heard from Susan Datta, Director of Fairfax County's Office of Management and Budget at our January meeting, this is going to be another tough year budget-wise. The deficit is approaching $500 million, $170 million of which is attributable to schools, which consumes 54 percent of the County's total revenues. Don't be fooled by the School Superintendent's proposed budget in which he details cuts. The schools are asking for more money than they received last year while other County agencies are facing drastic cuts. While schools are extremely important, I don't believe they can get by this year without curtailing expenditures. I don't condone cutting support in the classroom, but I do believe there is room for other reductions in school expenditures. Frankly, the school superintendent is playing the same old game, proposing potential cuts which affect the kids while not taking a realistic look at administrative and other costs. That dog won't hunt this time, as far as I'm concerned. At our January meeting, members overwhelmingly supported public safety as their No. 1 priority. Everyone agreed that schools were extremely important, but not at the cost of public safety. The County Executive's proposed budget will be released on February 23, the same day as our RHCA meeting. We'll discuss his proposed budget in depth at our March meeting. A couple of things to remember: a penny on the tax rate equates to approximately $20 million. In the Rose Hill Planning District, more than 70 percent of households DO NOT have kids in County schools. Our real estate assessments will be arriving soon and are expected to fall again. It will take a massive tax increase by itself to wipe out the deficit. Expect to see a combination of increased taxes, fees and drastic budget cuts in order to balance the budget.

RHCA Membership

Although the Rose Hill Civic Association depends mainly on volunteers, your support is extremely important if we are to continue several programs. The cost of printing The Rambler is our biggest budget item. Dues pay for the Rose Hill Beauty program, our post office box and contributions to several worthy community serving organizations. Contributions underwrite the cost of maintaining the landscaping at our entrance sign at Rose Hill Drive and Franconia Road and the cost of refreshments at our meetings. A list of those who have joined so far in 2010 is printed on page 3. If your name isn't there, make sure it's included in the March Rambler. Remember, only RHCA members are eligible to receive Rose Hill Beauty signs or have their business endeavors included in the business directory. Special thanks to those who contribute to the general fund above and beyond the $10 membership fee. Clip out the form on page 3 and send it, along with your check, to RHCA, P.O. Box 10891, Alexandria, VA. 22310.

Edison Mulch Sale

Spring can't be too far off! Edison High School's annual mulch sale to benefit the all-night graduation party in June at Lee District Park Rec Center is in full swing. A 3 cubic foot bag costs $4.25. The cost per square foot is competitive with the garden centers at the large chains. Orders must be placed by March 10. The pickup day is March 20 at Mark Twain Middle School (the pickup site has changed because of the construction at Edison). Delivery is available for orders within the Edison area for a fee of $5. An order form is available at myrosehill.com. If you have questions, e-mail Lisa MicKey at ehsclassof2010@hotmail.com. Mail orders to Edison High School, 5801 Franconia Road, Franconia, VA 22310. Attention ANGP Mulch.

Another Civil War Tour

The Franconia Museum is sponsoring the Both Sides Tour III on Saturday, May 1 to the battlefields in the Fredericksburg area. First stop is Chancellorsville, where General Robert E. Lee scored his greatest victory but lost the invaluable General Stonewall Jackson. Then it's on to Spotsylvania and an explanation of the connection between the battle and Franconia. After a buffet lunch at the Golden Corral, the tour visits Chatham Manor, the house overlooking Fredericksburg where Lee courted his future bride, Mary Custis, and President Abraham Lincoln plotted strategy with his generals. The final stop is the famous site of the stone wall at Fredericksburg where a Union attack much like the Confederate's "Pickett's Charge" at Gettysburg seven months later, was repulsed. The tour leaves from the Franconia Governmental Center at 8:15 a.m. for a full day of tours at some of our most important nearby Civil War sites. Information and vignettes will be provided at each site by Civil War enthusiasts Don Hakeson, Gregg Dudding and Carl Sell. Full information is available at myrosehill.com or franconiamuseum.org. Previous tours to the National Civil War Museum in Harrisburg, PA and the Gettysburg Visitors Center and Battlefield were well received. References provided upon request.

Rose Hill Community News & Notes

Snow Thoughts (Again)

The triple whammy of snowstorms so far this winter produced some thoughts and comments on just how homeowners, the county and the state coped with the weather. First, a reminder that a selection of excellent pictures has been preserved on myrosehill.com. We can all laugh about them in July. Thanks to all those who took the time to send in pictures. We used all of them!

THUMBS UP to the Virginia Department of Transportation and its contractors who did an overall excellent job in clearing the snow from the streets in Rose Hill despite two back-to-back whoppers. Yeah, there were some misfires (two plows on one street and none on another) but by and large a good job.

THUMBS DOWN to whoever ordered the Federal Government back to work on Friday, Feb. 11, and those who left cars blocking streets or parked in such a way that the snow plows couldn't get through. In too many cases, people left cars parked blocking the streets. They weren't snowed in, they just parked in the street so they could get out easier. As a result, the streets didn't get plowed until they left. And many main streets were narrowed by a lane making the term 'rush hour' even more ludicrous.

THUMBS UP to all those who were able who cleared their sidewalks, making it less hazardous to walk to the shopping center for milk, bread and toilet paper! A special thanks to those who cleared the sidewalks of their neighbors who were unable to do so.

THUMBS DOWN to those who were able to shovel but didn't make the effort to lessen the impact on the entire community.

THUMBS UP to the emergency personnel who answered several calls for help in our community at the height of the storm. We are indeed fortunate to have such dedicated public servants.

THUMBS UP to the Fairfax Water crew who dug up and repaired a broken water main on Cottonwood Drive in record time.

Finally, THUMBS UP to all of you who persevered during the record snowfall. Lets hope we don't have to go through it again anytime soon! As for me, I'll be looking for a snow blower on sale this summer.
