

Personal Development Plan

Full Name:

Disciple of Jesus

I believe that Jesus is God's Son, the Messiah, who has come to redeem mankind and restore all things. I am finding increasing freedom from sin and increasing joy in the Spirit as I follow Jesus. I am teachable and regularly learning of ways I must confess, repent, and believe the Gospel from God's Word, God's people, and God's Spirit.

Biblical Foundation

I submit to the teaching of Scripture as my guide for life by reading the Bible regularly and listening to the Spirit as I read it. I understand the core message of the Gospel of Jesus and am leading others to seek wisdom and understanding from God's Word. I can demonstrate a solid understanding of the core theological themes and doctrines of the Bible. I understand the Gospel and can help others apply it to their own lives.

Character

I am not perfect, but my life is marked by increasing Christlikeness and a pursuit of the elder/deacon qualifications (1 Timothy 3, Titus 3). Others would agree with my assessment.

Shepherding

My life and reputation are characterized by a deep love for people and concern for their well-being. I actively seek out opportunities to build relationships with people and engage in the hard work of discipling others in my sphere of relationships.

Missional Vision

I take personal responsibility for the Great Commission and model what partnership in the Gospel looks like for partners of our church family. I encourage others to take responsibility for their partnership in Gospel ministry in their spheres of relationships and influence.

Leadership

As a leader, I am able to influence others in conversation (healthy communication patterns, able to dialogue/nuance/reason, able to teach/explain), keep track of my personal and relational responsibilities (accountability and vulnerability), facilitate relational dynamics among others in my sphere of relationships (pursuing emotional intelligence), and collaborate with others to accomplish a given purpose or objective (pursuing a collaborative/synergistic leadership style).
