Church

...Forgive us our debts as we also have forgiven our debtors...

This is a time to be still before God and ask Him to cleanse you of the sins that you have committed against Him or others.

What did you see, say, hear, think, feel, desire, or touch that you should not have? Also, confess to God what you have not done that you should have.

Ponder these things throughout the week:

Day one: Has pride flared up in my life?
Have I hurt others by my words or actions?
Have I been impatient or angry with others?

Day two: Have I desired something more than I desire God?
Have I sought the approval of people more than the approval of God?
Have I longed for those things that belong to others?
Have I allowed worry to visit me too often?

...Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one...

This is a time to ask for God's protection.

Protection for your family and all the things over which you are a steward.

Protection from the Attacks of Satan by... (Eph:6:10)

Day one: Putting on the belt of Truth (= practice consistent honesty)
Putting on the breastplate of righteousness (= live a godly lifestyle)
Putting on the shoes of the Gospel of Peace (= sharing your faith)

Day two: Taking up the shield of faith (=trust God and His Word)
Taking the helmet of salvation (=exercise godly thinking)
Taking up the sword of the Spirit (=reading and applying God's Word)
