

Week one/Day one

Daily Devotions

Nothing Better Than Learning About God

Read, read, and read they tell us, but why should we read? Why should we learn? Well God gave us a mind of our own which means, we can fill it with anything and everything we want. But what is better than anything and everything? Well God because without God there would not be anything and everything. Our goal for these Daily Devotions is to entertain you and to inform you about what God is up to.
