Openers:

Do you know any "bad news / good news" jokes or anecdotes? Tell one. Eg, The bad news is my aunt told me the final score of the big game before I had a chance to watch it; the good news is my team won.

Have you ever harvested anything? What was your experience?

Questions:

1. Describe the woman (12:1-2), the dragon (12:3-4), and the child (12:5)? What do you think is the significance of each?
2. Where does the next scene occur and who are the protagonists (12:7)? What is the outcome of this scene (12:8-9)?
3. In 13:1-8, what is the beast of the sea like? How does it use its power?
4. In 13:11-17, what is the beast from the earth like? How does it use its power?
5. Given the descriptions in chapters 12-13, what encouragement is found in 14:1-5? Who is the Lamb, and why do the people follow him?
6. In 14:7 as the angel proclaims the gospel message, what does he say?
7. What message of assurance is given to the servants of God (14:13)?

Application:

8. Discuss what "battles" or "beasts" our Christian friends and neighbors face in their lives in Manila? How about you in your life?

Responding in prayer:

Take time to pray together, silently or aloud, that God would both heal you and fortify you for each day in 2016.

Pray together that you would see plainly before you the ways you can follow the Lamb.

Consider receiving prayer from a prayer minister at the conclusion of Sunday worship services. Or contact the Church to make an appointment to receive prayer from a pair of prayer ministers.
