Romans 10:13-15, Psalm 14:1

September 19, 2021

To begin:

Share about a time when someone told you really good news.

OR

What does it feel like to tell someone good news?

Before you proceed:

First, as you can, read Romans 10:13-15, Psalm 14:1 aloud in your group. If you have time, read it aloud a second time - from a different Bible translation. If you have time, read it aloud a third time - from an even different Bible translation.

Before you begin your discussion, pray and ask God to speak to your group. Notice, what may God be highlighting for your discussion and learning?

Now that you have read the text together and prayed, what points and questions arise from your group? Spend plenty of time in your group to address these points and questions. Explore and see how God may give guidance in the discussion. The following are further questions you may use to guide your interaction with the text.

1. What is being promised? (Read Romans 10)
2. What is the "good news"?
3. Who is doing the sending?
4. Why is each step crucial?
5. How are we sent?
6. What hindrances keep you from following God's calling?

Pray together as the Spirit has guided through the discussion.
