

MOBILIZED FOR MISSION

"The Place Where God Is King" | 29 MAY 2022

We share the good news and pursue the advancement of God's Kingdom in our communities, our cities, and the nations.

1. Read aloud John 17:14-19. Consider the fact that God sent Jesus into the world of his day on mission, and correspondingly as a Christian, you are sent into your world on mission. In light of these assertions from Scripture, discuss your perspectives on being sent into your world on mission.
2. Read aloud Philippians 2:14-15. What stands out to you in the text? What might a missional strategy be for overcoming grumbling and arguing in your world or the workplace? What has worked for you in this regard?
3. Following the prior question, discuss the example from the midweek reflection video about the upset airplane passenger. Can you relate to such an experience -- either as an onlooker, the person being difficult, or the person attending to the difficult situation? What did you learn?
4. Read aloud Colossians 3:17. What's an example of one person's quality work or character or both that has stood out to you in your life? In what ways did that make an impact on you?
5. Read aloud 1 Peter 3:15. Take turns in your groups giving a short response of the reason for the hope that you have. Are you prepared to talk about what your faith means to you should someone ask you tonight or tomorrow?

6. The UCM value of Mobilized for Mission is, "We share the good news and pursue the advancement of God's kingdom in our communities, our cities, and the nations." Please take a moment to think quietly on whether you embrace this value personally; then discuss some ways your group might become more intentional in embracing this value.

7. Pray for one another and UCM as it flows from the discussion that we would seek God earnestly toward the ends of His kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.
