

Ladies Bible Study Questions for Week 8

James 4: 1- 10

1. Growing up or even now, what does your family fight about? What do you think is the bases of these arguments?
2. Do you think conflict between spouses, friends, church members or even nations all stem from the same cause? Why or why not?
3. If the battle is within you, do you find yourself battling with yourself? Who is that fight really with?
4. Have you ever asked God for something and not gotten it? Have you seen others get what you wanted? How does that affect you?
5. In what way is friendship with the world similar to adultery?
6. God jealously longs for our faithfulness. Does God have reason to be jealous of you or your attention?
7. What is involved in submitting to God? What part of our bodies are involved? Is this literal or symbolic? Give your reason for your answer.
8. Verse 9 tells us to be miserable and mourn. Is this a continual life style? Why or why not? See Ecclesiastes 3:4.
9. What is the result of humbling ourselves before God? What does this look like to you?