

WEEK ONE

BIG IDEA

When things go wrong, I can choose what's right.

THE BIBLE

Micah 3:5-12

DISCUSSION

Hello Parents! In person, after we finish the service part of our Sunday morning, we break into Small Groups and discuss what we learned and how it applies to our lives. This is an exciting time where we see kids really making connections and furthering their understanding of God. We encourage you to be their Small Group Leader this week and ask some questions, it is a great time to help your child grow in their relationship with God and live out your faith in front of them.

1. What are prophets and what did they do?
2. What are some of things that were wrong around Micah's time?
3. How did Micah stand up for what was right?
4. If it were your job to bring news to your friends from God like Micah did, how would you feel delivering it?
5. As people who follow God, why is it important to remember that people notice how we live?
6. How will you choose to do what's right this week?

ACTIVITY

We heard about a fascinating job given to some fascinating people.

A prophet brings people the news, kind of like a person you might see on TV who shares what's happening in the world, or a person who writes for a newspaper or blog and shares all that's happening we may have missed.

SUPPLIES : (*included in box)

- newspaper worksheet*
- pens/markers

INSTRUCTIONS :

1. Write or draw a newspaper* clipping about the breaking news from Micah
2. On the back, write or draw your reaction to this news
3. Send a photo of your completed work to Julia (jmortley@allnationschurch.ca)

When I worship God, I can be sincere.

DISCUSSION

This is an exciting time where we see kids really making connections and furthering their understanding of God. We encourage you to be their Small Group Leader this week and ask some questions, it is a great time to help your child grow in their relationship with God and live out your faith in front of them.

1. What can you tell me about Amos?
2. What was the breaking news Amos had for the people of Israel?
3. How did God expect the people of Israel to be sincere?
4. Let's look at Matthew 25:13. What do you think this verse has to do with what we heard about to day?
5. Why do you think it was important for Amos to share this message with the people?
6. How do you think we can worship God sincerely?
7. How will you choose to show genuine worship to God this week?

ACTIVITY

Another word for "sincere" is "wholehearted." So when we worship God, we need to do it with our whole heart. That means no shortcuts, and with everything we have in us. The pieces of the heart represent the things that make a "whole heart" — our actions, words, thoughts, and feelings.

- scissors
- glue
- art supplies (paint/markers/crayons)

INSTRUCTIONS :

1. Write your name on the heart
2. Cut out the heart
3. Glue the pieces back together on the construction paper
4. Remind yourself: when I worship God, I can be sincere
